THE WEEK'S EVENTS

FRIDAY, DEC. 10.
Meeting of the Social Card club; hostess Mrs. Walter Lindstrom, on Government street, at 2:30 p. m.

NECESSITY.

Necessity, whom long I deemed my foe,
Thou cold, unsmiling, and hard-visaged dame,
Now I no longer see thy face, I know
Thou wert my friend beyond reproach or blame.

My best achievements and the fairest flights
Of my winged fancy were inspired by thee;
Thy stern voice stirred me to the mountain heights;
Thy importunings bade me do and be.

But for thy breath, the spark of living fire
Within me might have smouldered out at length;
But for thy lash, which would not let me tire,
I never would have measured my own strength.

But for thine ofttime merciless control
Upon my life, nerved me past despair,
I never should have dug deep in my soul,
And found the mine of treasures hidden there.

And tho we walk divided pathways now,
And I no more may see thee, to the end,
I weave this little chaplet for thy brow,
That other hearts may know, and hail thee friend.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in The New York American.

MR. AND MRS. WM. K. HYER CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Hyer entertained informally last night at their home on West Belmont street, relatives and intimate friends having been asked in to a reception given from 7 until 10, in honor of the 25th anniversary of their marriage. During the years which Mr. and Mrs. Hyer have made their residence here, they have become endeared to all who have been fortunate in being included in their special circle of friends, and last night's event was therefore an occasion of widespread interest—interest which spread beyond the select little circle which attended, and on to the hosts of friends of the Hyers about the city. Dainty refreshments were served, the house having been prettily done in cut flowers and greenery.

MISS DUNCAN ENTERTAINS AT BEAUTIFUL DINNER PARTY.
Miss Duncan entertained at a lovely dinner party of ten covers in compliment to Miss Anne Camden Stillman of Virginia and her two charming house guests, Miss Mary Lou Phinley and Miss Dorothy Donald, the others seated at the beautifully appointed table being Mr. Howell Erving, Jr., Mr. North Winslow, Mr. Hansell Hillyer, Mr. Sam Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlap. The table had for the floral centerpiece a large silver basket filled with pink roses and buds, the long-stemmed graceful blossoms drooping over almost to the handsome lace cover where asparagus fern formed an airy mound of green around the base. Silver dishes and compotes held the confections which matched the rosy tint of the flowers. An elegant menu of several courses was served.

FOR MISS ROBERTA FISHER.
Another brilliant event occurred last night at the Country club in which the debutante set figured prominently, cards having been issued by Mrs. Wm. Fisher and Miss Roberta Fisher for a reception and dance in honor of Miss Roberta's formal entry into social circles.

The Country club, which is an ideal place for gatherings of the sort which characterized last night's affair, were a decidedly gala appearance, beautifully gowned women having moved here and there among the somber hued evening garb of the men, to the soft strains of the orchestra.

Mrs. Fisher wore a handsome gown of black, with jet garnitures. Miss Roberta Fisher wore a beautiful white creation, which made her the veritable embodiment of girlish grace and loveliness.

This was also a color effected by the debutantes, which made the effect an unusually pretty one. Last night's affair proved to be of unusual interest in all of the various sets of the city and one of extraordinary brilliancy and pleasure, introducing as it did, one of the season's most attractive buds.

MISS LAURA SIMMS TO VISIT HERE.
Miss Laura Simms, of Attica, Indiana, will arrive shortly after the holidays to visit Miss Ella Ward. Miss Laura will be warmly welcomed here, as she made her home here formerly, her father having been a very successful manager of Hotel Escambia at one time.

RANDOLPH-HINES WEDDING OF INTEREST HERE.
Cards have been received here among the friends of the groom to the marriage of Miss Frances Randolph and Mr. Richard Percy Hines, Jr., which is to take place on Tuesday, December 28th, at Washington, D. C. Mr. Hines is enthusiastically remembered by many admirers here, having visited in the city previously.

THE SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.
A copy of the first regular report of the work of the School Improvement Association, in neat booklet form, and under the caption "The Story of the First Two Years," has reached this department, and is worthy of favorable comment. The illustrations which, like the entire tone of the clever little book, are of a strictly local nature, are all unusually clear and fine, while the reports, the reading matter, and the general information contained is all good, live, readable material. This is a publication which will do to send away from Pensacola, especially to those who, in their desire to remove to this promising city on the gulf, may wish to consider the all important matter of education.

EXPLAINS TO THIN LADIES

A Simple But Sure Method of Developing a Well-Rounded Bust and Figure.

(From New York Journal.)

It is a simple but sure method of developing the bust, arms, neck, hips and shoulders of women, who through some defect of nutrition and circulation are forever being humiliated by their more fortunate sisters. First, it must be understood that the human skin is an enormous gland, richly endowed with nerves, secreting and excreting, and at the same time, it is a minute blood vessel which contains at one time over one-third of all the blood in the body—that is, it is nature's perfect.

The relation of the skin to the vital organs through the nervous system in controlling the blood supply is such as to put them as a team working together. Get separately two ounces of glycerine, three ounces of rose-water, one ounce of linseed oil, one ounce of castor oil, and five cents' worth of borax. Mix the glycerine with tincture of calomel, shake and let stand two hours; then add a teaspoonful of borax and the rest of the mixture. Thoroughly absorb it, then wash off with hot water and soap and dry. It is believed by expert dermatologists to be the most effective prescription ever conceived for the purpose.

ARE PARENTS OF A SON.
A fine little son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pine on December 4th, and the parents of the little fellow are receiving many congratulations. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson, and the great-grandson of Mr. W. M. Keating.

LADIES' MISSIONARY SOCIETY HELD FINE MEETING.
The East Hill Baptist Missionary Society met yesterday afternoon at the church, the ladies having been present in very satisfactory numbers, much work having been accomplished. This is one of the city's very prominent missionary societies.

THE THURSDAY CLUB WITH MRS. WM. HALL.
Mrs. Wm. Hall delightfully entertained the members of the Thursday club yesterday afternoon at her pleasant home on Romana street. Mrs. Elizabeth Raby won the ace prize. Mrs. Connors the consolation, Mrs. Johnnie Baker the trophy, and Miss Elsie Baker the trophy. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. Johnson, on Barcelona street.

SOCIAL CARD CLUB WITH MRS. WALTER LINDSTROM.
Mrs. Walter Lindstrom will entertain the members of the Social Card club this afternoon at her home on Government street. The game is to be called at 2:30 instead of at the regular hour, in order that discussion may take place relative to the complimentary euchre which is to be given by the club during the holidays.

MISS ADA AND BARBARA ROSCO EXPECTED HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS.
Miss Ada Roscoe, who has been spending the past four months in Boston, is now in New York, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. May Bolet. There she will be joined by her sister, Miss Barbara, who is a student at Laselle Seminary, in Auburn, Mass., and together they

A TALK ON HATS.
As the season advances, misses' hats grow more and more sensible. The flaring brims and vast puff crowns and huge walking shapes which appeared with the beginning of autumn have been greatly curtailed, and so limited is the amount of trimming used and so simple its method of employment that each and every model seems to offer suggestions for home making.

Brims and turbans are much worn. These consist of a full puff crown and a band edge, often in heavy folds, the hat resting with a completely round line about the face and back of the head. Nothing could be simpler to make than this chapeau, for which a yard and a half of milliner's velvet or the same quantity of moire or ottoman silk would be used. For the miss to whom a side ornament is becoming, this could be in the shape of a round, loose rosette of the material, held down by a fancy button of some sort. Quills are seen on such useful hats but rarely, for the trim smoothness of the round line is the thing admired.

Another way of making this hat is to have the crown of beaver and the folds about the band of velvet. With this combination it is not uncommon to have the bias used for the band end at the side in a pretty bow. A hat with a similar crown has a small mushroom brim of velvet, and where this is black and the crown of white beaver the effect is very fetching. One such hat, which, though of good size, had a look of smallness on the head, was trimmed at the side with a small "maitre brush" held with a loose knot of the velvet.

Beaver is much used for the crowns of hats and it gives the substantial look required by winter millinery, such hats going well with the dressy street frock. So adaptable, too, are all of the heavy materials to the puff crowns that it would not be at all out of the way to make the crowns of cloth, or chambray, or wideawake serge.

TALLAHASSEE NEWS NOTES

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST AND PERSONAL MENTION GATHERED AT THE STATE CAPITAL.

Special to the Journal.
Tallahassee, Dec. 8.—A suit of mandamus, brought by the Atlantic Coast railway against the Railroad commissioners occupied the whole of yesterday in the supreme court. W. E. Kay and E. J. L'Engle, of Jacksonville, and George P. Raney, of Tallahassee, made oral arguments on behalf of the road and L. C. Massey for the commission.

Mr. Hall of Macon, Ga., an officer of the G. F. & S. railway, was also present, but took no active part in the argument.

The memorial exercises held by the Tallahassee Order of Elks Sunday afternoon were well attended and a delightful musical program was given by local talent, assisted by the Cherokee orchestra of the Leon hotel.

Vesper service at the college was attended by the usual crowds Sunday afternoon. This service was made attractive by selections rendered by the college faculty of music and the college choir.

The Lyceum attraction given last night at Munro's opera house called together a large audience, who enjoyed a hearty laugh over the clever impersonations given by Mr. Marvin Williams. Mr. Williams is a widely known humorist who never fails to send his audience home in high good humor with themselves and the world in general.

Happenings at the state house are scarce during the governor's absence. He will not return from the Everglades until the first part of next week. Francis P. Fleming, Jacksonville's brilliant young attorney-at-law, is in Tallahassee today.

The first real satisfactory rain that has fallen in this section for several months visited Tallahassee yesterday. It continued all day until nearly midnight, when the wind sprang up and the temperature began to fall. Today is clear, bright and cold.

BLUFF SPRINGS.
Special to the Journal.
Bluff Springs, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Maudie Wilson of Pensacola, who has been up here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Bond, for a few days, returned to her home in Pensacola last Friday. G. R. Stanton went to Pensacola last
